POT OF GOLD DUG UP

Buried Treasure Found At Upland; Tradition Points to Captain Kidd.

CHESTER, PA., January 2 .- While en gaged in digging out an old foundation in one of the Crozer textile mills in Upland, Captain C. C. Sawyer discovered an iron pot, which was partly filled with old coins of silver and gold.

of silver and gold.

He has been unable to determine in what country the coins were made, or their denomination, but believes he has their denomination, but believes he has discovered much wealth.

Tradition says that Captain Kidd, the famous pirate, sailed up Chester creek, and old residents of Upland says that for many years there was afloat a rumor that he burled this treasure near the place where the mill now stands.

By the finding of the pot of money interest is again revived in the Captain Kidd stories.
